Trooper Morehouse reports he entered I-94 eastbound and attempted to catch up to the vehicle. Trooper Morehouse reports when he was in the area of Milepost 253 in Dane County, Wisconsin he suddenly saw headlights in front of him from a vehicle that was traveling westbound in the eastbound lanes of the Interstate. Trooper Morehouse reports he and other drivers around him were able to take evasive action to the right to avoid a head-on collision. Trooper Morehouse reports he activated his emergency lights and started to head westbound in the eastbound lanes. Trooper Morehouse reports he then crossed through the median and entered the westbound lanes.

Trooper Morehouse reports he continued westbound in an attempt to catch up to the wrong way vehicle. Trooper Morehouse reports as he crossed CTH 73 he was approximately a quarter mile behind the vehicle. Trooper Morehouse reports he observed the vehicle cross under Oak Park Road and, as they traveled westbound west of Oak Park Road, he observed two eastbound vehicles approaching. Trooper Morehouse reports at approximately 10:23 PM he observed the wrong way vehicle collide with both the eastbound vehicles in what appeared to be a head on collision in the Town of Deerfield, Dane County, Wisconsin. Trooper Morehouse reports he did not observe any evasive maneuvers or braking by the wrong way driver, who was later identified as Brysen D. Wills, the defendant herein.

Trooper Morehouse reports he drove through the median to get to the eastbound lanes and he observed a silver Honda Pilot with Wisconsin license plate 317YLF. Trooper Morehouse reports he did not observe any occupants still inside the Honda. Trooper Morehouse reports to the east of the Honda Pilot he observed a male subject, the defendant, lying in the south ditch. Trooper Morehouse reports the defendant was later identified by mean of a Wisconsin photo driver's license and Fast ID fingerprint. Trooper

Morehouse reports he observed the defendant was still breathing and appeared to have lacerations to his face and injuries to his legs.

Trooper Morehouse reports he continued across the eastbound lanes toward the median. Trooper Morehouse reports he observed a white Nissan Sentra overturned in the median, lying on its roof. Trooper Morehouse reports he observed two females that were partially ejected from the Nissan. Trooper Morehouse reports these females were later identified as Kimberly Radtke and Katey Pasqualini. Trooper Morehouse reports both females showed extensive injuries and they did not show any signs of life.

Trooper Morehouse reports he continued through the median to the westbound lanes of I-94 and on the gravel median shoulder he observed a red Toyota Corolla. Trooper Morehouse reports in the driver seat, and laying back into the rear seat, he observed a male subject who was later identified as Patrick Wasielewski. Trooper Morehouse reports Wasielewski had injuries that were life ending.

Trooper Morehouse reports as he returned to the scene, he could see a small fire starting in the engine area of the Nissan. Trooper Morehouse reports he returned to the Nissan and extinguished the fire in the engine area. Trooper Morehouse reports he then observed a male subject crawling out of the driver's window of the Nissan, who was later identified as Brian Falk. Trooper Morehouse reports Falk was transported to the University of Wisconsin Hospital by Medflight.

Trooper Fenrick reports he obtained a blood draw warrant.

Further, according to said reports, on November 3, 2016, Trooper Fenrick personally observed a trained medical professional withdraw a sample of the above defendant's blood at 12:41 AM and that the sample was sealed and specially marked as having been withdrawn from the defendant.
